

Month XX, 2024

Regier Carr & Monroe, LLP, CPAs
4801 E. Broadway Blvd., Suite 501
Tucson, AZ 85711-3648

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements of The Haven and The Haven Butterfly Foundation, (collectively the “Organization”), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of September 30, 2023, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements, for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the consolidated financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information such that, in the light of surrounding circumstances, there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgement made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

Except where otherwise stated below, immaterial matters less than $10,000 collectively are not considered to be exceptions that require disclosure for the purpose of the following representations. This amount is not necessarily indicative of amounts that would require adjustment to or disclosure in the financial statements.

We confirm that to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves as of Month XX, 2024:

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated August 23, 2023, for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
2. The consolidated financial statements referred to above have been fairly presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP and include all proper classifications, required supplementary information, and note disclosure.
3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
4. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.

5. With respect to preparation of the consolidated financial statements, including assistance in proper formatting of the Schedule of Expenditures of Federal Awards; the preparation of the Form 990; and assistance in the completion of the Data Collection Form, we have performed the following:
 - a. Made all management decisions and performed all management functions;
 - b. Assigned a competent individual to oversee the services;
 - c. Evaluated the adequacy of the services performed;
 - d. Evaluated and accepted responsibility for the result of the service performed; and
 - e. Established and maintained internal controls, including monitoring ongoing activities.
6. Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates are reasonable.
7. Related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.
8. All events subsequent to the date of the consolidated financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
9. The effects of uncorrected misstatements summarized in the attached schedule and aggregated by you during the current engagement are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements as a whole.
10. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments, or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards CodificationTM (ASC) 450, Contingencies, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.
11. With regard to items reported at fair value:
 - a. The underlying assumptions are reasonable and they appropriately reflect management's intent and ability to carry out its stated courses of action.
 - b. The measurement methods and related assumptions used in determining fair value are appropriate in the circumstances and have been consistently applied.
 - c. The disclosures related to fair values are complete, adequate, and in conformity with U.S. GAAP.
 - d. There are no subsequent events that require adjustments to the fair value measurements and disclosures included in the financial statements.
12. All assets and liabilities under the Organization's control are included in the financial statements.
13. Net assets presented in the statements of financial position are appropriately classified, and reclassifications between net asset classes are appropriate.
14. We have maintained the composition of the Organization's assets in amounts needed to comply with all donor restrictions.
15. The Organization's disclosed tax exempt status is accurate.
16. The Organization has disclosed all matters of taxation that are deemed to be reasonably uncertain including, but not limited to, aggressive tax elections, the status or results of IRS examinations, provisions for unpaid unrelated business income taxes and tax benefits to the extent that the Organization believes that it is "more likely than not" that its tax positions will be sustained upon IRS examination.
17. The basis used for the allocation of functional expenses is reasonable.
18. Internal controls over the receipt and recording of contributions are adequate.
19. We are in agreement with the adjusting journal entries you have proposed, and they have been posted to the Organization's accounts. A list of the adjusting journal entries is attached to the representation letter.

20. There have been no cybersecurity breaches or other cyber events whose effects should be considered for disclosure in the financial statements, as a basis for recording a loss contingency, or otherwise considered when preparing the financial statements.
21. The Board of Directors' interpretation of whether laws place restrictions on net appreciation of donor-restricted endowments is reasonable.

Information Provided

22. We have provided you with:
 - a. Access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, meeting minutes, and other matters;
 - b. Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit; and
 - c. Unrestricted access to persons within the Organization and others from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.
23. The financial statements and any other information included in the annual report are consistent with one another, and the other information does not contain any material misstatements.
24. All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the consolidated financial statements.
25. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the consolidated financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
26. We have provided to you our evaluation of the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern, including significant conditions and events present, and we believe that our use of the going concern basis of accounting is appropriate.
27. We have no knowledge of any instances, that have occurred or are likely to have occurred, of fraud and noncompliance with provisions of laws and regulations that have a material effect on the consolidated financial statements or other financial data significant to the audit objectives, and any other instances that warrant the attention of those charged with governance, whether communicated by employees, former employees, vendors, regulators, or others.
28. We have no knowledge of any instances that have occurred or are likely to have occurred, of noncompliance with provisions of contracts and grant agreements that has a material effect on the determination of consolidated financial statement amounts or other financial data significant to the audit objectives.
29. We have no knowledge of any instances that have occurred or are likely to have occurred of abuse that could be quantitatively or qualitatively material to the financial statements or other financial data significant to the audit objectives.
30. We have taken timely and appropriate steps to remedy fraud, noncompliance with provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, abuse or waste that you have reported to us.

31. We have a process to track the status of audit findings and recommendations.
32. We have identified for you all previous audits, attestation engagements and other studies related to the audit objectives and whether related recommendations have been implemented.
33. We have provided views on your reported audit findings, conclusions, and recommendations, as well as our planned corrective actions, for the report.
34. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud, or suspected fraud, affecting the Organization's consolidated financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, vendors, contractors, regulators, or others.
35. We have disclosed to you all known actual or possible litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the consolidated financial statements.
36. We have disclosed to you the identity of the Organization's related parties and all the related party relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
37. There have been no communications from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with or deficiencies in accounting, internal control, or financial reporting practices.
38. The Organization has no plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.
39. We have disclosed to you all guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Organization is contingently liable.
40. The Organization has no plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.
41. We have disclosed to you all guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Organization is contingently liable.
42. We have identified and disclosed to you the laws, regulations, and provisions of contracts and grant agreements that could have a direct and material effect on consolidated financial statement amounts.
43. There are no:
 - a. Violations or possible violations of laws or regulations, or provisions of contracts or grant agreements whose effects should be considered for disclosure in the consolidated financial statements or as a basis for recording a loss contingency.
 - b. Unasserted claims or assessments that our lawyer has advised are probable of assertion and must be disclosed in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards CodificationTM (ASC) 450, Contingencies.
 - c. Other liabilities or gain or loss contingencies that are required to be accrued or disclosed by ASC-450.
44. The Organization has satisfactory title to all owned assets, and there are no liens or encumbrances on such assets nor has any asset or future revenue been pledged as collateral, except as disclosed to you.
45. We have complied with all aspects of grant agreements and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the consolidated financial statements in the event of noncompliance.

Single Audit

46. With respect to federal awards, we represent the following to you:

- a. We are responsible for understanding and complying with and have complied with the requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance).
- b. We are responsible for the preparation and presentation of the schedule of expenditures of federal awards in accordance with the Uniform Guidance.
- c. We believe the schedule of expenditures of federal awards, including its form and content, is fairly presented in accordance with the Uniform Guidance.
- d. As part of your audit, you prepared the draft financial statements and related notes and assisted with the formatting of the schedule of expenditures of federal awards. We have designated an individual with suitable skill, knowledge, or experience to oversee your services and have made all management decisions and performed all management functions. We have reviewed, approved, and accepted responsibility for those financial statements and related notes and schedule of expenditures of federal awards.
- e. The methods of measurement or presentation have not changed from those used in the prior period.
- f. We are responsible for including the auditor's report on the schedule of expenditures of federal awards in any document that contains the schedule and that indicates that the auditor has reported on such information.
- g. We have identified and disclosed all of our government programs and related activities subject to the Uniform Guidance compliance audit.
- h. When the schedule of expenditures of federal awards is not presented with the audited financial statements, we will make the audited financial statements readily available to the intended users of the schedule of expenditures of federal awards no later than the date of issuance by the Organization of the schedule of expenditures of federal awards and the auditor's report thereon.
- i. We have, in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, identified in the schedule of expenditures of federal awards, expenditures made during the audit period for all awards provided by federal agencies in the form of grants, federal cost-reimbursement contracts, loans, loan guarantees, property (including donated surplus property), cooperative agreements, interest subsidies, food commodities, direct appropriations, and other assistance.
- j. We have provided to you our interpretations of any compliance requirements that are subject to varying interpretations.
- k. We have made available to you all federal awards (including amendments, if any) and any other correspondence relevant to federal programs and related activities that have taken place with federal agencies or pass-through entities.
- l. We have received no requests from a federal agency to audit one or more specific programs as a major program.
- m. We have identified and disclosed to you all amounts questioned and any known noncompliance with the direct and material compliance requirements of federal awards, including the results of other audits or program reviews or stated that there was no such noncompliance. We also know of no instances of noncompliance with direct and material compliance requirements occurring subsequent to the period covered by the auditor's report.

- n. We have disclosed to you any communications from federal awarding agencies and pass-through entities concerning possible noncompliance with the direct and material compliance requirements, including communications received from the end of the period covered by the compliance audit to the date of the auditor's report.
- o. We have made available to you all documentation related to compliance with the direct and material compliance requirements, including information related to federal program financial reports and claims for advances and reimbursements.
- p. Federal program financial reports and claims for advances and reimbursements are supported by the books and records from which the basic financial statements have been prepared (and are prepared on a basis consistent with the schedule of expenditures of federal awards).
- q. The copies of federal program financial reports provided to you are true copies of the reports submitted, or electronically transmitted, to the respective federal agency or pass-through entity, as applicable.
- r. We have properly classified amounts claimed or used for matching in accordance with related guidelines in the Uniform Guidance, as applicable.
- s. We have charged costs to federal awards in accordance with applicable cost principles.
- t. We are responsible for and have accurately prepared the summary schedule of prior audit findings to include all findings required to be included by the Uniform Guidance, and we have provided you with all information on the status of the follow-up on prior audit findings by federal awarding agencies and pass-through entities, including all management decisions.
- u. We have disclosed to you the findings received and related corrective actions taken for previous audits, attestation engagements, and internal or external monitoring that directly relate to the objectives of the compliance audit, including findings received and corrective actions taken from the end of the period covered by the compliance audit to the date of the auditor's report.
- v. The reporting package does not contain personally identifiable information.
- w. We have disclosed all contracts or other agreements with service organizations and disclosed to you all communications from these service organizations relating to noncompliance at the organizations.
- x. We have reviewed, approved, and taken responsibility for the financial statements and related notes and an acknowledgment of the auditor's role in the preparation of this information. (This representation is required by footnote 28 to paragraph 3.18 of Government Auditing Standards when the auditor has a role in preparing the trial balance and draft financial statements and related notes.)
- y. We have disclosed to you the nature of any subsequent events that provide additional evidence with respect to conditions that existed at the end of the reporting period that affect noncompliance during the reporting period.

In addition:

- a. We are responsible for understanding and complying with the requirements of federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of federal awards related to each of our federal programs and have identified and disclosed to you federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of federal awards that are considered to have a direct and material effect on each major federal program; and we have complied with these direct and material compliance requirements.
- b. We are responsible for establishing and maintaining, and have established and maintained, effective internal control over compliance for federal programs that provide reasonable assurance that we are managing our federal awards in compliance with federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of the federal award that could have a material effect on our federal programs. Also, no changes have been made in the internal controls over compliance or other factors that might significantly affect internal control, including any corrective action taken by management with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in internal control over compliance have occurred subsequent to the period covered by the auditor's report.
- c. We are responsible for and have accurately completed the appropriate sections of the Data Collection Form and we are responsible for taking corrective action on audit findings of the compliance audit and have developed a corrective action plan that meets the requirements of the Uniform Guidance.
